Work Experience

Catalyst Solutions

Data Analyst | 2025 - Present

As a Data Analyst, I work with large datasets to help businesses make informed decisions. I specialize in cleaning, transforming, and interpreting complex data to uncover trends and provide actionable insights. I enjoy turning raw information into clear charts and reports that make results easy to understand and use.

EDGE Bangladesh

Trainee Intern - Programming in Python

I completed an intensive Python internship, where I worked on real-world projects and hands-on coding challenges. This experience sharpened my programming skills and deepened my understanding of data handling and project development. I enjoyed using Python to solve everyday problems and bring concepts to life.
